

Extension Acknowledgement Agreement

Thank you for choosing David York's Tax Service, Inc. to assist you in filing your 2021 Personal and/or Business tax extensions to the federal & state government. This letter confirms the terms for engaging with you to e-file your federal extension.

The 2021 S-Corporation, Multiple-member LLC & Partnerships tax returns are due Tuesday, March 15, 2022. Individual, Sole proprietorship, Single-member LLC & C-Corp income tax returns are due Monday, April 18, 2022. By filing these extensions, you are requesting an additional six-month extension to file your 2021 federal and state tax returns which will be due on September 15, 2022 for S-Corporation, Multiple-member LLC & Partnerships and for Personal, C-Corporation, Sole proprietorship and single-member LLC, October 17, 2022. This is an extension to delay filing paperwork for completed 2021 federal and state(s) tax returns, but NOT an extension to delay paying any amount owed. The tax liability is your responsibility. Payment in full is expected by the original deadline of either March 15, 2022 or April 18, 2022, with or without an extension. Since we have not prepared your taxes, you alone will be responsible for determining whether you owe taxes or are entitled to a tax refund. This includes any estimated payments for the current year. The IRS will hold you accountable for the calculations provided with this extension. If you underestimate the balance and send less money with the return than the IRS calculates when you do complete your tax return, they will charge you interest on the balance. If you overestimate the balance, you will receive the difference from the IRS after you file the completed return.

Penalties and Interest Charges

Extensions may affect your liability for penalties and interest or compliance with governmental or other deadlines. Federal, state, and local tax authorities impose various penalties and interest charges for noncompliance with tax laws and regulations, including failure to file or late filing of returns, and underpayment of taxes. You, as the taxpayer, remain responsible for the payment of all tax, penalties, and interest charges imposed by tax authorities.

To the extent you wish to engage our firm to apply for extensions of time to file tax returns on your behalf, you must notify us of this request in writing. Our firm will not file these applications unless we receive an executed copy of this Agreement and your express written authorization to file for an extension.

By signing this agreement, you are agreeing to the terms set forth in our standard engagement letter and agree you understand that you are responsible for all payments, penalties and interest charges by federal, state and local tax authorities. You further agree that you are responsible for the estimated payments for the current year and that no extension payment will be calculated by our firm. This may result in penalties as described above, and those penalties and any resulting interest will be your sole responsibility. This acknowledgment and the terms within our engagement letter represent the entire agreement regarding our tax preparation services and supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, regarding our services.
